"THE CONFEDERATE CAMP."-T. S. Beckwith & Co., have on exhibition at their bookstore in this city a handsome chromo, entitled The Confederate Camp, which is sure to arrest attention. Mr. Chapman who painted the original picture from which this chromo is taken, has given us no fancy sketch but with delightful simplicity and vigor, the very body of the time which he has chosen to reproduce. No one indeed could have been better qualified for the task. The son of the celebrated landscape painter of the same name (J. G. Chapman is a native of Alexandria, Va.,) (whose work on "The Elementary Principles of Art" is well known both here and in England, and whose studio in the Via Di Babuino at Rome has been for years the centre of a refined and highly cultivated American and English society) young Chapman, on the breaking out of the war shut up his studio in Rome, crossed the seas, and served during the whole war as a sergeant in the Confederate army. He has now gone back to the bright skies of Italy, but he shows that he has not forgotten the minutest circumstances connected with his soldier life in America. In the foreground of the picture are two groups of veritable "Confeds"—one busily engaged in the mysteries of cooking, the other seated upon a horse blanket enjoying "a small game" of that wicked combination of "keerds" known to the godless as 'draw.' There are several other groups in the back-ground; some at mess; some, who were on post last night stretched out asleep with their slouch hats tipped over their eyes; -some (privates indeed, but embryo Generals in their own estimation,) discussing "the situation;"-the usual group of officers lounging about head-quarters, over which floats that old battle flag which they still believe "bound to win," and then the inevitable sable conclave in rear of the tents, whose souls are intent upon "de coffy" alone, and who, mark you, have never bothered their heads about a 15th Amendment. The picture is truthfully conceived and admirably executed. The chromo is executed by Hanbart of London. We understand that a companion picture from Mr. Chapman's pencil, is shortly to be published at the same price, entitled, "With the Rear Guard on the Retreat."—Petersburg Index.

GRANT, AS A LOGICIAN.—The newspapers are making fun of the President's Portland speech. They ought not to do it. Was it not a very good speech! It will be rembered that it ran as follows:

"CITIZENS OF PORTLAND: I have very vivid recollections of a, to me, gratifying visit I made six years ago in your city. Now 1 return from an equally pleasant one, both here and in other parts of your State. My reception has been most pleasing, and I hope my visits will not be so far apart in the future, otherwise I shall not be able to visit you often before I am a very old man. I thank you for this greeting."

Now, we contend that this was an eminently wise, patriotic, and Conservative speech. We can find no fault with it. It was not tedious. Nobody could complain of being tired out with listening to it. It was easily reported. Above all, it was sound and true, which public speeches sometimes are not.

It will bear the closest analysis. See; what a beatiful series of syllogisms may be made of it-viz:

1. Six years is a long time. I have not seen you for six years. Therefore, it is a long time since I saw you. 2. A few long times make a lifetime. Six years is a long time.

Therefore, a few times six years make a life-3. In the course of a lifetime I shall be a very old man. A few times six years make a lifetime. Therefore, in the course of a few times six years I shall be a very old man. 4. If I don't see you oftener than heretofore, I shall see you only once in six years.

In the course of a few times six years I shall be a very old man. Therefore, if I see you no ofcener than before, I shall see you only a few times before I am a very old man. We really think Gen. Grant's speech was one of the most lucid and logical ever delivered by that distinguished orator. - Mobile Reg.

JAPANESE COIN.—The San Francisco Bulletin thus describes the new Japanese silver coinage: "The standard of fineness and weight is that of the American coinage, the unit being the 'Yen.' which corresponds with the American dollar in size and value, though in its general appearance, style and finish, it more resembles the new vexican coinage. The yen, half yen, and quarter yen, all round coins, are alike in everything but size and value, the design on all being identical. The obverse has a sun and halo in the centre, with a wreath below and three flowers above. The reverse has the Imperial dragon curiously coiled up in the centre, surrounded with Japanese characters. The milling is the same as that on the American coinage. Hitherto it has been found impossible to get any coin except the dollar of the Republic of Mexico to pass current in China; but our Japanese advicess tate that the Chinese merchants in Japan are exporting the new Japanese coin to China by the cart load, as fast as. it is issued from the mint, which would indicate that they expect it to go into general circulation in the Central Flowery Empire."

TRADE MARKS. - A telegram says : - "A Boston boot and shoe firm which has an extensive Northern reputation, by reason of its loyalty, lately hit upon an ingenious plan to push their trade in the South. They invented a sort of square toed boot, upon the leg of which was imprinted the likeness of Gen. R. E. Lee, and this was to go in the general Southern market. A finer boot was then made, with the picture of Stonewall Jackson also imprinted on the boot leg, and this was intended especially for Virginia dealers. The firm then applied for a patent at the office on their trade-mark, but the examiners to-day decided that the application could not be granted, on the ground that these trade-marks tended to encourage disloyalty in the South. The firm have taken Plain and Cedar Buckets; Eagle, Zinc and Plain Washboards; Clothes Pins, Sugar Boxes, Brushes, an appeal to the commissioner.

MEDICAL.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON, Physician of this celebrated institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the world for all DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspheia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Threat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, &c.

YOUNG MEN.

Especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, and dreadful and destructive habits which annually sweep to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to extacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power-Impetency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

physician. ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored. This distressing Affection-which renders life miserable and marriage impossible-is the miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper it dulg encies. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened. Loss of Procreative Power Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS

Persons ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders and their Deadly Poison, should apply immediately. DR. JOHNSTON Member of the Royal College of Surgery of London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Col-leges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately

These are some of the sad and melancholy effeets produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Lumbs, Pains in the Mead, Dinness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Func-tions, General Dability, Symptoms of Consump.
